The Information We Collect

Our web server automatically recognizes only the domain name and IP address from which you access our website, but not the e-mail address (where possible). We use cookies, which are small pieces of information that are sent via your Internet browser and stored on your computer's hard drive, to record user-specific information on what pages users access or visit on our website. The information we collect is used to help us improve the content of our website and make each visit more rewarding.

On some pages, you can order products, make requests, and register to receive materials. The types of personal information collected at these pages are:

- Name
- Address
- Email address
- Phone number
- Credit/Debit Card Information

The Way We Use Information

We use the information you provide about yourself when placing an order only to complete that order. We use the information you provide about someone else when placing an order only to ship the product and to confirm delivery. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete the order.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

If you supply us with your postal address on-line you will only receive the information for which you provided us your address. If you supply us with your telephone number via our website you may receive telephone contact from us with information regarding orders you have placed on-line. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete the order, nor do we use it for any purpose other than what is stated above.

We do not partner with or have special relationships with any ad server companies.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser that X number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that Y number of men and Z number of women filled out our registration form, but we would not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

How You Can Access Or Correct Your Information

You can access all your personally identifiable information that we collect online and maintain by e-mailing us at the above address. You can correct factual errors in your personally identifiable information by sending us a request that credibly shows error. To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.

Our Commitment To Children's Privacy

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

Privacy Policy Changes

The information we collect and maintain will be subject to the version of our Privacy Policy Statement in effect at the time of collection. From time to time, we may use information for new, unanticipated uses not previously disclosed in our Privacy Policy Statement. If our information practices change at some time in the future we will post the policy changes at our website to notify you of these changes. If you are concerned about how your information is used, you should check back at our website periodically.
